HOLDEN & WILSON, STATE PRINTERS. AUTHORIZED PUBLISHERS OF THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Disbanding the K. N. Party.

We have been no little amused at an editorial in the Register of the 17th, ushered into the world under the following grandiloquent caption: "Should the American party be disbanded ?-No; a thousand times NO!" Just suppose that "no" shall be thundered two thousand times, it can't alter a single fact, and especially the fact that the K. N. party is already disbanded.

The editor of the Register asks: "Why should it be done?" That is, why the party should be disbanded? and then proceeds:

"Is the principle which gives it its name any less valuable than heretofore? Are we less exposed to foreign influence now than years ago?" It is refreshing to hear the Register talk about foreigners just like the K. N. papers did some two years ago. The Register has certainly been asleep -has just woke up, rubbed its eyes, and bawls out against "foreign influence," not conscious that it has been asleep at all, and not knowing that the entire K. N. press and party of the State had given up talking about foreigners, catholics, &c., and concentrated what little vitality they had left on a single little humbug-distribution. Jast as the K. N. papers all cease to prate about foreigners, the Register commences it as something new.

But the Register cannot see any difference between Whig and K. N. principles, and it wonders why Whig and K. N. are not considered synonymous terms. That is decidedly rich-it is cooling ever in this hot weather-it is a patent freezer. The editor of the Register, we believe, never joined the K. N. party, but always claimed, until now, to be a Whig. and as such he was declared by the K. Ns, to belong to an "old, corrupt organization," for the broken promises and bad faith of which the pure, new K. N. party would not be responsible! Now he can see no difference between them; and so far as broken promises and bad faith are concerned, we admit there is not much difference.

But another rich morsel from the Register:

"The "old line Whigs," by sticking to a mere name, did mischief enough last fall to satisfy any set of men who are not, at heart, in league with Democracy, and if we are to have a party to fight against that worst sort of Chinch Bug, the Chinch Bug of modern Democracy, it is anything but wise to talk of divisions, when every consideration of patriotism cries aloud for union; to talk of disbanding any thing which can be made available against Democracy, when rally should be the word."

Now the "mischief" these old line Whigs did was, to help defeat Fremont and save the Constitution and the Union. Surely the Register would not have preferred the election of Fremont to that of Mr. Buchanan. The "Chinch Bug" allusion is decidedly cl-ass-ic, and we presume the enlightened portion of humanity will understand it without any explanation from us.

But we wish to call attention to the words we have italicised in the above extract. They express the principle on which the K. N. party bas ever acte ', viz: Any thing to beat the Democrats. We assure the Register the Democratic party does not fear the little K. N. faction. Its greatest dread is the supremacy of Black Republicanism, the only thing that can now be " made available against Democracy." We cannot believe our neighbor means what he says. We do not believe he would use the abolitionists to overthrow the Democratic party, notwithstanding he says nothing should be disbanded which can be made available against it. We beg our readers to exercise charity, and not believe him. But another extract:

"What are "old line Whig" principles? Save distribution, is there one of them living ?-Who will hoist the flag of a National Bank? Who will rally under the banner of a protective Tariff, to enrich the abolitionists of the North and East?"

Then the editor of the Register confesses he was wrong when, as a Whig, he advocated a bank, a high tariff, &c., for so many years. Then his judgment was bad, and is not to be trusted in his views of new matters, such as K. N. principles and distribution. More than likely he will, in a few years, speak of his present views as he now does of those he entertained in the past. Who can tell?

Again the Register asks:

"What more strength will a party, rallied against the common foe of the country, under the name of " Whig" possess, than a party called "American?"

Yes, and both names will not possess as much strength against the "common foe," as the Democratic party is here termed, as the one name of Black Republican. Springing from the womb of abolitionism, it was called Know Nothing in its infancy, but is now a giant, and bears the name of Black Republican. The Register thus discourseth on the name of Whig: "The name "Whig" was applied, first to the anti-Jackson party, by that flatulent individual called James Watson Webb, now a turbulent Black Re-

And James Watson Webb was also the god-father of Know-Nothingism, and likewise, as a natural consequence in a Nothern man, of Black Republicanism. The Whig party of the North was swallowed by K. Nism, and K. Nism, in its turn, was swallowed by Black Republicanism. Webb took a regular course, and graduated in each of the departments. But the editor of the Register winds up his article by defining his position, and we will copy it: "For one, then, we are for abiding the fate and fortune of the "American" party. Its great principles and aims are our own, and rather than belong to any other than an American party, a party devoted to American interests against all the world, we would, as Cuffee said "agonize on our own suppor-

A fitting conclusion !- an admirable finale! We hope the Register will not suffer. If the "suppor tables" of its "agonizing" are the principles of K. Nism, we warn the editor that he cannot "pile up the agony" much before his "supportables" will give way-all but Cuffee, and he will be strong only at the North and in hot weather. But what change has come over our neighbor? We thought he was in favor of the Kansas bill, and this new party he now attaches himself to, denounced that bill. We thought he took the side of the South on the slavery question, and this new party "ignored" that question. Is he willing to sacrifice everything else for the sake of distribution? Would he surrender the rights of the South for his "sheer" of the public lands? We cannot believe it. His prejudices against the Democratic party lead him into indiscretions, and he utters rash words, which his cooler judgment would not justify, and which do not express the natural feelings of his heart. We have reviewed his article merely to give him warning, and teach him not to let his prejudices get the better of his patriotism.

GEN. WALKER'S LETTER .- As an item of news we publish the letter of Gen. Walker to President Buchanan. Every thing relating to this remarkable adventurer is of interest to the people generally.

Mr. Scales.

The Greensborough Patriot and Flag continues its unscrupulous warfare on Mr. Scales; and we cannot but think it does it against light and knowledge, and with a settled determination to misrepresent that gentleman and distort the facts.

The last misrepresentation we have seen in that sheet is an accusation that the State Bank is a pet of Mr. Scales', and as an evidence of it, it is stated that he voted to tax the shares in all other banks 75 cents, while the tax on shares in the State Bank was continued at 25 cents.

Now, we doubt not the editors of the Patriot and Flag, (or the writer of the article in question, whether an editor or not,) knew that the charter of the State Bank, granted in 1833, contains the following language:

"Each share owned by individuals shall be subject to an annual tax of twenty five cents, and no

Here the language is plain and explicit, and takes from the Legislature the power of increasing the tax over 25 cents per share. This language-" and no more "-is not used in the charter of any other bank; hence neither Mr. Scales, nor any other member of the Legislature, could vote to impose a tax of more than 25 cents per share on this Bank. while they could vote to increase the tax on the shares of other Banks, because their charters do not prohibit them from so doing.

According to the new charter, granted by the last Legislature, the power is reserved to tax the shares in the Bank of the State to the amount of one dollar each; but this new charter has not yet been acted upon by the stockholders, and of-course the Legislature, in enacting a revenue law, had to conform to the provisions of the original and present charter of the Bank. Had it imposed a tax of more than twenty five cents on the share, the provision would have been set aside by the courts, and pronounced null and void. This the editors of the Patriot and Flag must have known; but they chose to do injustice to Mr. Scales with the hope of stealing a vote from him. Such conduct is unworthy the conductor of a press, and would not be resorted to but by the most unscrupulous, and by those who were conscious that their chances of success were desperate. It is the old Know Nothing principle of "rule or ruin"-triumph, without regard to the means employed.

But the Patriot and Flag, in its cager desperation, is overleaping itself; and Col. Purvear may attribute a part of the majority against him in August next, to the insane, absurd and unfair efforts of the editors of that paper against Mr. Scales.

REV. DR. HAWKS .- This distinguished and worthy son of North-Carolina was in this City several days last week, the guest of the Hon. John H. Bryan. He has been closely engaged for some weeks past, in prosecuting his researches into the history of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence.

Dr. Hawks preached to large and attentive audiences on Sunday forenoon and afternoon last, in the Episcopal Church of this City. We had the pleas ure of hearing him in the forenoon. It was a direct, earnest, practical, eloquent sermon.

Dr. Hawks will deliver an address to-day, Wednesday, in Oxford, on the occasion of dedicating St. John's College; and will return to this place on Thursday or Friday. We are gratified to have it in our power to State that he expects to attend the State Educational Convention to be held in Warren-

Gov. Swain was at Columbia, S. C., on Thursday last, for the purpose of examining the archives in the State House, and obtaining Revolutionary documents. We indulge the hope, if he should return home in time, that he will also attend the Convention at Warrenton.

Massachusetts American State Convention. NOMINATION OF HON, N. P. BANKS AS CANDIDATE FOR

Boston, Tuesday, June 16.—The American State Convention numbering about 300 delegates, representing 82 towns, assembled to-day in a room of Tremont Temple. Geo. W. Messinger, of Boston,

The Convention reaffirmed the Springfield platform, and refused to adopt the platform of the National American Party, recently constituted at Louis

On the first ballot for Governor, N. P. Banks, received 219 votes, out of 229 cast, and was then, amid cheering, declared the candidate unanimously by acclamation.

Eliphalet Trask, of Springfield, was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, receiving 224 votes. John H. Clifford was nominated for Attorney-Gen-

A Committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Banks, who found him quite ill. He is understood to have verbally accepted the nomination, and promised to write a letter explanatory of his decision.

There it is !- the " American" party ! The very name of the opposition at the South. First Know Nothing, then Black Republican, then "American!" Heaven save the name, for the party is past hopes. N. P. Banks, Black Republican Speaker of the House of Representatives, and "American"(!) candidate for Governor of Massachusetts. That will do. What do Messrs. Smith, Gilmer and Puryear think of this "American" brother of theirs?

ANOTHER GREAT MAN .- One Collins, heretofore professing to be a Democrat, has gone over to K. Nism, and is now connected with a K. N. paper just started at Winston, Forsythe county. He is a printer by trade, and formerly lived in Warrenton, N. C. He was connected with a Democratic paper there—then with the Banner, at Salisbury—then with the Sentinel, at Winston. We believe he was paid to leave all these establishments, by which he has probably made enough to resolve himself into his original elements and appear as a genuine K. N. Hurra for Collins! and those who know him will heartily respond "Amen." The comet isn't a circumstance to him in the article of-narrative. Great is Collins, and deception is his profit.

THE LOUISVILLE DISTRICT, KY .- Mr. Bullitt, the Democratic candidate for judge of the court of apneals, in the Louisville District, Ky., has defeated Wheat, the K. N. candidate by a handsome majority. The K. N. loss in the city of Louisville is An attempt was made by the Plug Uglies to renew the murderous outrages of former years, and thereby drive the Democrats from the polls; but they were met with firmness by the Democrats, headed by Col. Preston, Judge Bullitt and others, and quite a display of arms was made on both sides, but no blood was shed. The cowardly P. U's caved in, and the election proceeded quietly.

MAYOR .- By reference to the proceedings of the board of commissioners, at a special meeting held last Saturday evening, it will be seen that Capt. Wm. H. Harrison was elected Mayor of the City during the absence of Mayor Haywood, who is now in

We have received a full account of the discussion between Messrs. Smith and Shaw at Edenton, which we are compelled to defer until our next. The gentleman who furnishes it will accept our thanks.

The New York War.

Elsewhere we publish a condensed account of the troubles in New York City. This is the first conflict between conservative Democracy and that spawn of Know Nothingism, known at the North under the names of American, black Republican, &c. A body of men, banded together by oaths, and sworn. to aid and support each other without regard to right or wrong, must soon produce disturbances, to end, unless promptly checked, in anarchy and civil war. Thanks to the bold and manly opposition of Mayor Wood and his supporters, this attempt by the K. N. black Republicans to overturn the liberties of a people, has been unsuccessful. Until the last spark of Know Nothingism shall have been quenched, riots, rebellion and bloodshed will attend it. The whole cause of this disturbance lies in a nutshell. The City of New York gave Mr. Buchanan a large majority last fall, and immediately the threat went forth that it should be punished for such audaciousness. Bound by oaths to stand by each other, the K. N. American Black Republican Legislature passed laws last winter infringing the chartered privileges of the City, and taking its government out of the hands of its Democratic Mayor, elected by the people, and giving it into the power of their "American" Governor, Mr. King. This authority the Governor attempted to exercise, and the consequence, as might have been foreseen, has been a conflict between the regular City officers and the bogus appointees of the Governor, in which blood has been shed, but in which conservatism, right and justice have triumphed. Gov. King hastened to the City, and like the French king that marched his army up a hill and then marched it down again, he left.

We clip the following extracts from an editorial in the N. Y. News of the 19th. The News is a sound Democratic paper, but opposed the election of Mayor

"The city yesterday presented its usual quiet and peaceful appearance. There were few hangers on about the City Hall. The bogus Metropolitan Police carefully absented themselves, and the Old Guard rested quietly and securely on their honors, fairly

The Mayor was in the performance of his usual routine of duties, at the same time keeping a watchful guard over the interests of the city, and ready, as heretofore, to defend it from the encroachments of illegal authorities, or assumed powers by irresponsible officials. The flags of the City Hall floated gaily in the breeze, as evidence of that freedom and set curity which has thus far been preserved to us, and at which every true man could point with pride and

"Our flag is there !"

The evidences of Wednesday afternoon were clear enough that our black " Republican" would-be usurpers had become satisfied that they had far o'erstepped the bounds of propriety, of reason and of right, and yesterday this was made still more palpable by the general quietness which prevailed throughout the city.

Gevernor King, who is not entirely void of common sense, when uninfluenced by his corrupt surroundings arrived in the city during the day, and soon informed himself of the true state of things .-Among other acts he sent to Mayor Wood, with a request that he would call upon him at the Astor House, which request was readily complied with and the interview was as frank as it was satisfactory to both parties.

The Governor was evidently satisfied that in calling him from Boston, under the pretense that his presence was required to preserve the peace of the city was simply a piece of folly, quite equal to any his friends had committed, and he left in the last evening 6 o'clock, boat for Albany, disgusted with his own officials, and with himself for listening to their telegraphic requests for his presence.

That Mayor Wood has positively refused to obey the mandates of any Court when served by a bogus policeman, or by one not duly authorized, is true enough. He has done so over and over again; and all the powers of all the Judges, including the Recorder, (much to his chagrin) making use of such instruments, has not been able to drive him from his position, and will not; bnt all mandates served by the Sheriff, his deputies, or others properly authorized, he has and will obey with alacrity and an-.swer promptly.

The scene which The Times represents as having taken place between the Mayor and General Sandford is a pure fiction. So is that of The Mirror, which says that the Mayor left his office on Wednesday evening and returned to it yesterday morning in custody of a deputy sheriff. He weut and returned as usual ir. his own carriage, unattended by

The Post is equally in error, in stating that Mayor Wood has acted throughout in direct opposition to the advice of Messrs. O'Conor, Edmonds and Sedgwick, counsel employed to test the constitutionality of the Police law. When the enemies of our municipal rights are compelled to resort to such factitious arguments to effect the position of Mayor Wood, while he is defending our chartered privileges from the flagrant usurpation of a Black 'Republican" Legislature, their case must indeed be

The Mayor has conducted himself throughout this whole difficulty with consumate ability. His position has been a difficult and perplexing one. Every conceivable force which Black "Republicanism," aided by some who would not like to be placed in that category could bring to bear, has been arrayed against him. He has resisted them all-triumphed over alland Connover, the King's Commissioner of Streetswhom he would thrust upon us-and out of which act all this difficulty has sprung, has retired from the conflict in despair, and the Mayor's own appointee is confirmed by the board of Aldermen-in possession and the quiet performance of his duties. Draper is not dangling from the limb of a tree in the Park-Governor King has retired in disgust with his ill selected officers, to his great mansion in Albany, and Governor Seward remains in the city to keep his wild Kansas screeching rebels from blasting all his hopes and future prospects. The city is at peace. Order reigns.'

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION-NOTICE TO DELEGATES. Persons attending the meeting of the Educational Association in Warrenton, on the 30th of this month, will please register their names as delegates, at the Hotels, where they will find committees waiting to conduct them to the places where they are to stay. The Association will be convened at early candle light on Tuesday evening, and opened with an address by Rev. J. T. Wheat, D. D., of Chapel Hill, president pro tem. As a constitution and by-laws, containing many important provisions, have to be discussed and adopted, and permanent officers elected, it is not possible to give a regular programme of the proceedings; but the Executive Committee would announce that, among other things, an address on the importance of general education, the means of promoting it, and the duties of all classes of society towards this cause, will be delivered by Wm. W Holden, Esq., of Raleigh.

A cordial invitation to attend is again given to all the friends of North-Carolina, as the occasion cannot fail to be one of pleasure and profit to those who participate in its proceedings, while it is one of vast importance to the best interests of the State. Owing to the public spirit of Railroad Companies and the generous hospitality of the people of Warrenton, the cost will be trifling to each individual. while the work begun is one of the noblest that ever engaged the affections of a lover of North-Carolina. Thos. H. Dana, Esq., of Mississippi, has been of-fered the Marshalship of the same Territory. Mr. Cummings will be again tendered the governorship of Utah, and his acceptance is considered certain. The impression is almost amounting to a certainty, that the Postmaster General, to whom the whole subject has been referred, has selected for the California wagon road the route starting from Memphis and running via Fort Smith and Donna Anna, in Mexico to Fort Yuma.

The Pacific Railroad through Texas will be eight hundred and eighty three miles long, and has a grant of eight millions and seventeen thousand acres of land, and a loan of six thousand dollars per mile from the State.
